

CURRICULUM VITAE

ALEXEY MILLER

Date and place of birth: 04.09.1959, Moscow

Nationality: Russia

Address for correspondence:

Russia, 115184, Moscow, Bolshaia Tatarskaia street 25/27, apart.6.

Tel. +7-495-9533173. (private)

+7-903-1265027 (mobile)

e-mail – millera@ceu.edu; millera2006@yandex.ru

Present positions:

- Professor, European University, St-Petersburg

- recurrent visiting professor, Central European University (Budapest), Department of History (half-time, since 1993)

Education:

Doctor of Science (Habilitation) in History – Russian State University for Humanities, Moscow, 2000. Dissertation – "The Ukrainian Question in the Politics of Imperial Authorities and in Russian Public Opinion, 1850-1880's."

Candidate of Science (History) - Institute for Slavic and Balkan Studies. 1986. Dissertation - "Ideology and Politics of Polish Conservatives in the Habsburg Monarchy in 1860's - 1870's"

Graduate studies: Institute for Slavic and Balkan Studies of Russian Academy of Sciences, 1981-1984

Moscow State University, Department of History, 1976-1981

Languages:

English (Excellent reading and speaking proficiency)

Polish (Excellent reading and speaking proficiency)

Ukrainian, Belarussian (Excellent reading proficiency)

German (Good reading, limited speaking proficiency)

French, Czech, Slovak (Reading capability)

Russian (native)

Teaching experience:

Courses taught at EU:

Empire and Nationalism in Russia and USSR

Historical Politics

Nations and Nationalisms

Courses taught at CEU:

PhD seminar “Topics in History of Eastern Europe”

PhD seminar “Nation-building in East-Central Europe”

MA courses:

Imperial Order and Nationalism in Contiguous Empires. A Comparative perspective.

Ethnicity and Nationalism in the Russian Empire and Early Soviet Union

Modernization in Eastern and Central Europe

History Politics in Eastern and Central Europe

Courses taught in Moscow, Warsaw and Kiev Universities:

Russian-Ukrainian relations - 18th-20th centuries

Nationalism and Nation-Formation: Theories, Models, Concepts

The Western Borderlands of the Russian Empire

History Politics in the 21st century

PhD defenses under my supervision

Alexandr Voronovici (2016): The Ambiguities of Soviet “Piedmonts”: Soviet Borderland Policies in the Ukrainian SSR and the Moldovan ASSR, 1922-1934

Anna Mazanik (2015): Sanitation, Urban Environment and the Politics of Public Health in Late Imperial Moscow

Tatyana Khripachenko (2014): National Challenges to Decentralization: Autonomy and Federation in the Russian Liberal Discourse, 1900-1914

Anton Kotenko (2014): THE UKRAINIAN PROJECT IN SEARCH OF NATIONAL SPACE, 1861-1914

Recent projects:

Director of the project “Conceptualizing Memory Politics in Russia – Entanglements and Comparative Perspective”. Russian Scientific Foundation, 2017-2019

Director of the project “Russia in International Relations”, MacArthur Foundation, 2015-2017

Director of the project “The Past Century - How the 20th century is seen from the 21st century in Eastern and Central Europe” – 2012-2013. (1 book published)

Director of the project “Historical politics in Eastern Europe in the 21st century”, 2010-2011, Carnegie Endowment for Peace, Moscow (2 books published)

Director of the project “Imperial legacy and the future of Russia”. 2007-2008, Liberal Mission Foundation, Moscow (1 book published)

Director of international teacher-training projects “History of the Russian Empire – beyond National and Regional Narratives” (2003-2006) and “Methodology of History” (2008-2009), funded by Regional seminars for Excellency in Teaching (ReSET) program of Open Society Institute, Budapest

Director of the project “Russian Empire in Comparative perspective” 2001-2006 (7 books published)

Editor of:

- Book series “The Borderlands of the Russian Empire”, Novoe Literaturnoe Obozrenie Publishing House, Moscow
- Book series “Historia Rossika”, Novoe Literaturnoe Obozrenie Publishing House, Moscow
- Book series “RUSSIAN, EAST EUROPEAN AND POST-SOVIET STUDIES”, Central European University Press, Budapest (with A.Rieber and M.Siefert)

Membership in Scientific Councils:

- NISE (National Movements and Intermediary Structures) Antwerp
- Comparativ. Zeitschrift für Globalgeschichte und vergleichende Gesellschaftsforschung, Leipzig

Membership in Editorial Boards:

- National Identities
- European History Quarterly

- Studia Judaeslavica, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Brill Publishing House
- Ukraina Moderna, Lviv
- Belarusian Political Science Review, Vilnius
- Roczniki Dziejow Społecznych i Gospodarczych, Warszawa
- Rocznik Instytutu Europy Środkowo-Wschodniej, Lublin

Fellowships and awards:

2017 – Senior fellow at IWM, Vienna

2015 – senior fellow in Imre Kertes Kolleg, Jena

2010-2011 - Leverhulme Trust Research Professor, Manchester University

2010-2011 – grant of OSI-Moscow for the project « History politics in Eastern Europe»

2009 – Visiting Professor EHESS, Paris

2005 – Humboldt-Stiftung Research Fellow

2004 – Visiting professor in the Center for Border Studies of the University of Glamorgan, UK.

2002-2003 – senior fellow in Collegium-Budapest

2001 – senior fellow in the Institute for Human Sciences (IWM), Vienna

2000-2001 – grant of MacArthur Foundation for the project “The Dichotomy ‘Russkij-Rossijskij’ in Contemporary Political Discourse in Russia”

1998-1999 – Humboldt-Stiftung Research Fellow

1995-1997 – grant of OSI-Moscow for the project “Russia and Ukraine in their historical encounter”

1994-1995 – grant of MacArthur Foundation for the project “The Formation of the Image of Russia in Ukrainian Press and of Ukraine in Russian Press after the Dissolution of the USSR”

1989-1990 – scholarship in the Institute of History of Polish Academy of Sciences.

Guest lectures: Harvard, Columbia, Berkeley, Stanford, Maryland, West Point, Penn, Munich, Berlin (Humboldt and Free), Cologne, Paris (EHESS), Aix-en-Provence, London (SSEES), Manchester, Edinburgh, Geneva, Basel, Warsaw, Cracow Universities, and many Universities in Russia and the post-Soviet countries, including Vilnius, Tartu, Kiev, Lviv, Alma-Aty, Bishkek

Main areas of research :

History of concepts, Comparative history of empires; Russian nationalism and empire; memory politics in Central and Eastern Europe.